Participating Edwardian Hotels in London

The Londoner, Leicester Square

London is a city of brilliant collisions, contradictions and juxtapositions; a diverse mix of people, places, atmospheres and experiences. The Londoner is an ode to the city and its nuances, where every feeling and flavour has been designed to be repeated, again and again. Addictive in nature and memorable by design, these reflections of the city are presented in the shape of a luxury design hotel in London, situated on one of the world's most iconic squares. Individual, intimate, eclectic, and curated; yet staggering in scale, The Londoner is a new hotel category of one – the world's first super boutique hotel. A perfectly engineered collection of spaces, tastes and textures brought to life over 16 storeys on London's legendary Leicester Square. The Londoner is home to 350 exquisite bedrooms and suites, six concept eateries and bars, including a rooftop lounge and tavern, a private guest residence, an urban wellness retreat, seven inspiring meeting spaces and a stunning ballroom for up to 850 guests.

The May Fair, a Radisson Collection Hotel

The May Fair, a Radisson Collection Hotel, is set in the heart of one of the most sought-after addresses in the world. Opened in 1927, The May Fair in London was the first new hotel to open in the British capital in over 20 years. Inaugurated by King George V and Queen Mary, the hotel quickly became a playground for London's high society. Today, while eminent spaces and glimmering Baccarat chandeliers remain, the hotel has transformed into a contemporary getaway, known for its timeless elegance and charm. Located in one of London's most affluent and desirable neighbourhoods, The May Fair London, A Radisson Collection Hotel offers plenty to do, see, and explore. Popular attractions such as the Royal Academy of Arts, Spencer House, and Wellington Arch are mere moments away, as is Hyde Park when escaping the bustle of the city can't come quickly enough. Close to Buckingham Palace, Bond Street's exclusive boutiques and Berkeley Street's famous restaurants, the hotel is also a short walk from Green Park tube station, providing easy access to Canary Wharf. The May Fair enjoys some of the largest bedrooms in London, including an iconic collection of suites, world-class Japanese and Italian food and drinks at the award-winning restaurant, May Fair Kitchen, a vibrant bar, secluded terrace, stunning event spaces and tranquil spa.
