

Hub of the Americas Tocumen International Airport in Panama City

The Hub of the Americas offers convenient flight schedules designed for fast connections and seamless end-to-end service. It is the most direct way to connect with the American continent. Bags are checked directly to the passenger's final destination and there is no need to clear customs or immigration when connecting. The airport also has a large number of duty-free shops. Copa Airlines lounges (Copa Club) are in 6 locations where you can live up your waiting time at the airport.

Copa Airlines has been recognised as the “Best Airline in Central America and the Caribbean” by Skytrax for the 9th consecutive year, and has been named as one of the world’s 5-star airlines by the APEX Passenger Experience Association.
